Taking care of all your legal needs

Fortunately you don't need legal advice everyday. But when you do, you want to know who to use without delay. That's where we come in.

All our lawyers are experts in their field, and because our specialist teams offer award winning services, you can be confident you will always receive the best advice.

We are different

Our focus has always been to find new ways to deliver exceptional, affordable legal services for people like you in their personal, employment and business affairs. Unlike many law firms, Russell Jones & Walker (RJW) specialises in acting for individuals, something we've been doing for more than 80 years.

Who do we represent?

People like you.

Our clients come from a wide range of backgrounds and for a variety of reasons. Some may have been injured at work or are having trouble with an employer, others are moving house or making a will. Our broad range of expertise means that we can be with you every step of the way, whatever legal situation you have to face.

Our clients keep coming back

We take great pride in the strong and lasting relationships we have with our clients. We'd like you to become one of them.

Close at hand

Working across ten offices throughout the UK there is always someone nearby who can help with your situation.

Accident, Injury and Occupational Illness

Whether you have been injured in an accident, are suffering with an illness contracted at work, such as Mesothelioma, or wish to bring a claim of medical negligence our team of experts are here to help. We are independently recognised as one of the UK's leading accident and injury firms, and handle thousands of claims every year.

Our Compensation Protection Scheme offers you a dedicated service that can help increase the real value of your personal injury compensation. We can also advise on setting up and running a special trust which will help you keep your entitlements to means-tested benefits including local authority help.

Business Crime & Regulation

The Business Crime & Regulation team has over 25 years of unrivalled practical experience defending individuals and businesses involved in regulatory investigations and prosecutions. Our value lies in our in-depth knowledge and understanding of investigative agencies and their procedures along with the confidence and ability to guide clients through the process to minimise their professional and personal exposure.

Charity Law

Our dedicated Charity department provides legal help with all areas of Charity law from establishing charities to governance issues and advising on Charity constitution. We are also well placed to provide training and development for charities and trustees based on the charity's particular needs.

Education Law

We have one of the UK's leading Education Law teams, acting for parents and children, in Tribunals, school admissions and exclusions plus school closures.

Employment

Our award-winning employment team are independently recognised as the top law firm for individuals facing issues at work. We deal with all areas of employment law for claimants from discrimination cases to contract and redundancy issues. Our experience of mediation and conflict resolution strategies ensures our clients do not always have to resort to litigation. However when conflict is unavoidable we handle this with sensitivity.

Family Law

With one of the largest teams of Family Law solicitors in the country, we are able to deal with all aspects of family law; from relationship planning with a pre-nuptial agreement or a cohabitation agreement to dealing with the breakdown of a relationship. Our nationwide team deal with all types of divorce including acting for individuals with high net worth assets and international divorce.

Media, Libel & Privacy

Your reputation and your personal privacy are both precious. If something damaging is published or said about you (or your company) we can take action to minimise its impact or pursue a claim for compensation. We have vast experience in this area, and in the developing fields of invasion of privacy and breach of confidence. We can also help before something is published with advice or even an injunction – prevention is usually better than cure.

Property

Purchasing or selling a house or commercial property often requires specialist solicitors to carry out the necessary legal work and ensure the process runs smoothly. Our property team is able to assist with all types of property issues.

Sports Law

We have expertise and experience in dealing with the particular legal problems facing professional and amateur athletes.

Wills & Probate

We are able to advise on all issues surrounding the death of a loved one. We have vast experience in advising on all types of Wills from the simple to the more complex including what should be included in a Will, obtaining probate and providing help with winding up an estate. We can also assist with disputes regarding the validity or the terms of a Will.
